

STATE OF SOUTH AUSTRALIA.REVIEW OF MIGRATION STATISTICS 1927 to March 1930.

	1927	1928	1929	March Qtr. 1930	Total 3¼ yrs.
Population at beginning of period	566,394	575,771	579,348	580,271	566,394
1. INCREASE BY MIGRATION.
(a) Interstate.
New South Wales	-965	-2,442	-2,291	-688	-6,386
Broken Hill	(-182)	(-1,063)	(-1,235)	(-446)	(-2,926)
Victoria	407	381	-505	-249	34
Queensland	-48	-168	-82	-37	-335
Western Australia	-1,540	-2,799	-2,026	-147	-6,512
Tasmania	56	27	1	..	84
Total Interstate	-2,090	-5,001	-4,903	-1,121	-13,115
(b) Oversea	5,103	2,317	200	-259	7,361
(c) Total Increase by Migration	3,013	-2,684	-4,703	-1,380	-5,754
2. NATURAL INCREASE	6,364	6,261	5,626	1,358	19,609
3. GRAND TOTAL INCREASE.	9,377	3,577	923	-22	13,855
Population at end of period	575,771	579,348	580,271	580,249	580,249

Notes:- Broken Hill - The figures shown above for Broken Hill are also included in the totals for New South Wales.

For the 3¼ years ended 31st March 1930, the State gained 19,609 by natural increase but lost 5,754 by migration, the net gain being 13,855. The net loss by migration to the other States was 13,115, the chief being to Western Australia 6,512 and New South Wales 6,386 (including Broken Hill 2,926). The net gain overseas was 7,361, but the total gain for 1929 was only 200 and there was a loss of 259 for March Quarter 1930, the United Kingdom arrivals being 215 and the departures 514.

W. L. JOHNSTON,

Statistical Office,
ADELAIDE.
10th July, 1930.

GOVERNMENT STATIST &
REG. GEN. OF B.D. & M.